FOOD

A menu bursting with flavour

Delight your wedding guests with delicious, exciting food rooted in Dakota culture and pride. Choose from a selection of farm-to-table menu options and dishes created from traditional Indigenous recipes from Moose Woods Home Fire Grill, our on-site restaurant and bar. Or design your own wedding menu of sensational celebratory dishes that suit your tastes and vision with the help of our culinary team.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Stylish elegant guest rooms & suites

With every detail designed to reflect the rich heritage of the Whitecap Dakota Nation, you and your guests will feel the spiritual connection to the beauty of the wild prairie lands shared by the First Nations people. Our stylish rooms pair Indigenous charm with modern comforts with floor-to-ceiling windows, rich wood furnishings, cultural bedside artwork, and spectacular views of our pristine prairie landscapes, lush, green golf links, and the enchanting South Saskatchewan River Valley Basin.

Top-notch entertainment for all your guests

Enjoy a range of amenities and services all in one place. Swim in our indoor rooftop pool, enjoy our state-of-the-art fitness centre, or tee off at Dakota Dunes Golf Links, the #1 ranked public golf course in Saskatchewan. Connect to the land and its people through the Dakota Dunes Adventures program with activities such as fishing, canoeing, Dakota History & Star Stories, Bannock and Bonfire and more. Visit our gift shop and browse a dynamic gallery of local Indigenous handicrafts, artwork and clothing. At night, head next door to Dakota Dunes Casino and enjoy 85,000 sq. ft. of entertainment with over 620 slots, 18 table games, and Saskatchewan's only high limit room.

OUTDOOR LOCATIONS

So many flexible spaces to meet

Based on the four elements important to Indigenous life – earth, water, air and fire – Dakota Dunes stands as a tribute to its heritage. Dakota Dunes Resort offers several spectacular indoor and outdoor venues for small or large ceremonies, including:

Dakota Dunes Garden

The perfect location for an outdoor meeting venue, Dakota Dunes Garden, features an alluring amphitheatre that creates a captivating and spiritual outdoor setting for you and up to 75 guests.

Rooftop Patio

Boasting breathtaking views of the traditional Dakota territory, featuring gently rolling natural sand dunes, tranquil sunsets, and our award-winning golf course, our Rooftop Patio seats up to 50 guests and can also serve as a cocktail hour reception location.

Culturally authentic adventures await you

Experience a sense of awe and be inspired by gorgeous views of unspoiled nature and gently rolling natural dunes as you explore all the activities available at Dakota Dunes Resort and surrounding area. Located on traditional Whitecap Dakota Unceded Territory, the Dakota way of life emphasizes respect for others and the environment.

Connect to the land and its people through adventure and discovery with activities such as Fishing, Dakota History, Bannock and Bonfire and much more. An unforgettable, authentic Indigenous experience awaits you.

Cultural Experiences

The word "Dakota" means "friend" or "ally", and the Dakota way of life emphasizes respect for others and the environment. Through these curated cultural experiences, you will discover a culture that believes that peace and harmony are essential elements for relationships to living creatures and all of creation. A culture with a long history of relationship building with other indigenous nations and with European newcomers.

Enrich your next meeting, special event or group gathering with these authentic indigenous experiences.

Some Cultural Experiences include:

- Bannock & Bonfire
- Pow Wow Dance Presentation
- Reconciliation Workshops
- Indigenous Games
- Mini Tipi Set Up
- Stargazing
